HUNGRY?

If you're up early (or up all night) to hear the choristers / see the Morris dancing / drink some ale on May Morning, you'll probably work up a bit of an appetite. We've compiled a list of places opening early for breakfast (and booze), helpfully divided based on which side of Magdalen bridge you end up stuck on. For more complete details (including prices) see www.dailyinfo.co.uk. Remember, the city will be very busy; you may want to book!

THIS year, it looks like Magdalen Bridge will be officially closed (mainly to prevent people jumping off into the deceptively shallow water and breaking themselves) from 4.30-7.30am for vehicles and from 5.30-6.30am for pedestrians (though it may open earlier if it looks quiet).

Account Managers
 We are recruiting for sales consultants to join our team working with secondary school telesales campaigns. The successful candidates will be responsible for contacting heads of departments and subject coordinators, following up direct marketing generated sales opportunities/procedures, qualifying appointments for the field sales teams and meeting and exceeding weekly sales revenue targets.
 The roles are suitable for bright, self-motivated and driven sales professionals. Previous sales experience is desirable.
 To apply, please send a CV and a covering letter to rachel.shields@boardworks.co.uk or to Rachel Shields, Boardworks Ltd, The Gallery, 54 Marston Street, Oxford, OX4 1LF
