PA/Administrator (6 Month Fixed Term Contract)
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
About Us
 Oxford University Press is a department of the University of Oxford which furthers the University's objective of excellence in research, scholarship, and education by publishing worldwide.
The ELT Division is a global leader in the provision of multimedia English language teaching and learning materials. Operating in over 100 countries, it reaches millions of teachers and students each year to support the development of English language proficiency.
About the Role
 The PA/Administrator is responsible for supporting the administrative needs of the New Media and Video department, a team of 41 people. The support will include PA and general administrative duties for all team members as and when required. In addition, this role is responsible for conducting desk based technology research, creating ad hoc reports and white papers.
About You
 The ideal candidate will have excellent administrative, secretarial and organizational skills and experience, as well as an interest in computing systems and new media. The ability to prioritize a rapidly changing workload is essential and experience of preparing desk-based research reports is desirable.
 You will also be required to have strong interpersonal and collaboration skills; be able to work with a wide range of internal and external people and be able to use your initiative and be flexible when required.
 The salary offered will be in the region of £20,500 depending on the skills and experience. OUP offers a full range of supporting benefits.
Closing date: 11 May 2011

INTERESTING PEOPLE WANTED
Interesting People Wanted
 Family based in village south of Oxford - Solo parent (53) plus 4 sons (who have Down's Syndrome, ages 29, 23, 15 & 7) would like to meet interesting people who would like to get involved with our small community.
 Our interests include; family life, real community and active participation in our village and beyond, arts (including theatre, story telling, music, dance & puppetry), football, swimming, cooking/eating and playing and having fun. We also enjoy meeting people, networking, parties and loud music.
 Our ambition is to write our own histories and break the mould; to be far more than just passive objects responding to uncontrollable change, e.g. to go where no person with Down's Syndrome has gone before.
 If you are drawn to this advertisement, please contact us for further details and to discuss logistics etc.
