RESTAURANT REVIEW

SAFFRON
Indian & French Restaurant
204-206 Banbury Road, Summertown. Tel. 512211

This Indian Café Restaurant (previously being French/Indian) is contemporary in its décor and the tables set out in a spacious way, so you aren't elbow to elbow with your neighbouring diners! The service was excellent and there were plenty of waiters on hand to attend to every request.

Drink orders were taken promptly and arrived very quickly (2 pints of Stella, £3 each). We couldn't resist popadoms and chutneys to nibble through whilst looking through the extensive menu. The popadoms arrived with a beautifully presented selection of chutney's, our favourite being Mango! Our waiter was very patient with us as we took our time deciding what to eat. With an excellent selection of vegetarian and meat starters we really couldn't make up our minds, this was the case with the main course as well. Not only were there the normal Indian dishes but a number of saffron specialities which would be suitable for those people who are not so keen on spicy food. These were slightly pricier at £10.95. At this point we decided to opt for the "Leave It To Us Feast!" which is a 3-course option where they decide for you. We ordered one meat (£14.50) and one vegetarian (£12.50) with a garlic naan to share.

A selection of 3 different starters came for each of us, all were delicious and we were happy with our decision. Our main courses were equally enjoyable, a rolled chicken breast with minced lamb for me and a vegetable curry and a side dish of aubergines and chickpeas for my girlfriend. Rice was served with both meals. All the dishes were very flavoursome and medium spiced.

Indian ice cream was served for our final course – pistachio and mango. Again presentation was faultless and finished the meal with a refreshing taste.

This restaurant seems suitable for all occasions. There were a number of couples, families and groups eating and all appeared to be having an enjoyable time. Saffron's is open for lunch as well as dinner and has lunchtime specials between 12 and 2.30.

I hope to go back very soon.

David Soper, Sept 2004
