Project Worker The Children's Society
£21,909 - £24,958 pa pro rata
Based in Oxford, 29.6 hours per week
This post is currently funded until 31st March 2011 but may be extended subject to further funding.
The Children's Society wants to create a society where children are valued, respected and happy. We are committed to helping disadvantaged and vulnerable young people, including children in care, or those who have run away. We give a voice to disabled children so their needs are met in ways suited to them. Through our work, young carers find time away from their responsibilities, and young refugees have a chance to rebuild their lives in new communities. Children are at the heart of all we do, and we want to build a better childhood for every child.
The OASIS Project has been working with young refugees in Oxford since 2004. The project aims to support young people mostly of secondary age at school in Oxford to overcome barriers to learning and make the most of their educational opportunities.
We're looking to recruit a Project Worker to work in a secondary school in Oxford alongside teachers in order to provide extra support for young refugees. The role will involve some classroom support, running a homework club and liaising with a wide range of school, social services and partner agency staff. You'll also be expected to help run holiday activities for young refugees.
You'll be educated to degree level or have a relevant professional qualification, e.g. Diploma in Social Work, Certificate in Youth & Community Work, PGCE, and you'll be a committed team player.
To apply, please visit www.playyourpart.co.uk or call us on 0121 362 8618 quoting reference S01938/DI.
Closing date: 22nd September 2010.
Interview date: 5th October 2010.
All recruitment documents are available in alternative formats. Please note that CVs will not be accepted.
Charity registration number 221124.
We strive to be an equal opportunities employer.
