Painter Sally Bamber and Photographer Robert Taylor invited sixteen people to be the subject of a painted and a photographic portrait - created completely independently - and then asked them to compare and contrast the two media, describing their experiences of the two different processes and feelings about the results. Robert and Sally completed the exercise by creating portraits of each other.

The exhibition, Three-way, features the portraits and extracts from all the written responses.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Part-time publishing position at the Press

Commissioning Assistant, Nursing Part-Time (17.5 hours)

The Higher Education Department has a vacancy for a motivated, ambitious individual who has a real interest in textbook publishing to fill this entry-level position. As a vital member of the nursing team, you will provide part-time support to a Commissioning Editor in all aspects of delivering an ambitious publishing programme.

The role involves:
- Providing administrative support to facilitate smooth day-to-day running of the nursing list;
- Liaising with authors and academic contacts to ensure a smooth and accurate flow of information relating to all forthcoming titles and projects.
- Initiating and project-managing review work on new book proposals, chapters, and manuscripts under suitable guidance;
- Managing the contractual process for all titles commissioned;
- Undertaking market research to assist in the acquisition of new titles

A natural team player, you will be confident and persuasive when communicating with people at all levels. You will be organized and deadline-driven, and able to prioritize a demanding and varied workload over 3 days a week. You must also possess excellent Word, Excel, internet, and e-mail skills. With some opportunity for flexible working hours, this role is particularly suitable for an individual seeking part-time work.

Salary in the region of £17,700 pro rata over 17.5 hours. OUP offers excellent benefits.

Assistant Sales Analyst

This is a great opportunity to join a strong and focussed Sales team at a very exciting time. You will be a key player in supporting an increase in the level of analysis we carry out with a strong focus on pricing, specifically to:

- Review competitor pricing and advise pricing inconsistencies on like-for-like product against the UK published price list.
- Administrate the Nepp process, adding new titles to the budget and price list files as appropriate, scanning approved Nepps and keeping these in an electronic filing system.
- Prepare Market Review documents in good time for annual meetings in Oxford, and ensure key points are followed through.
- Action Basic Change Forms, ISBN Issue Forms, Advance Notifications to ensure that the correct title information is maintained within the price list and budget files, and also that the correct prices are maintained on SAP.
- Track publishing windows against publication dates, ensuring product launches aren't affected when schedules change.

You will be an enthusiastic team-player with at least two years' commercial experience and will have:

Essential:
- Strong numeracy and literacy skills
- Good Microsoft Office skills, particularly Excel.
- Strong attention to detail.
- Good administrative and organisational skills.
- Good inter-personal and communications skills (both written and oral).

Desirable:
- Experience of dealing with customers.
- GCSE passes in Mathematics and English.

Salary in the region of £16-£17,000
