GREEN TEMPLETON COLLEGE | OXFORD

THE 2010 OXFORD LEADERSHIP PRIZE
 Now in its sixth year

"Diversity and Inclusion":
 part of the solution or part of the problem for effective organisational leadership in a rapidly globalising world?

PRIZE: £4,000

Two further awards of £1,250 for highly commended entrants

Open to anyone connected with the University and who has matriculated or obtained a first degree in the last ten years (undergraduate, postgraduate, alumni, faculty or staff). Whatever your field, interests and experience, can you turn your naturally limited exposure to leadership in today's institutions to advantage? Can you use the fresh pair of eyes all about us to identify innovative ideas about how leadership should address this question in future?

Can you make your case effectively - both in the format of your choice and in person - to distinguished leaders, thinkers and practitioners in the field?

REGISTER INTEREST BY: FRIDAY 19 MARCH 2010
SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MONDAY 26 APRIL 2010

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Production editors: ELT multimedia
 Five-month fixed-term contracts
 English Language Teaching Division, Oxford
 OUP's English Language Teaching publishing is evolving to reflect changes in the way content is delivered to schools, with exciting new digital products such as interactive whiteboard materials for teachers and online materials for students. We are currently looking for production editors to work on new ELT multimedia materials for primary schools.
 You will be responsible for preparing content for digital delivery, liaising with new media, audio and video staff, testing CD-ROMs and websites, and supporting editors on a variety of multimedia projects.
 The job demands a keen eye for detail, good word processing skills, excellent communication skills and written English, and good organizational ability. Previous experience in publishing would be desirable but is not essential.
 The job is based in our attractive Oxford offices. Salary dependent on editorial experience.
 Closing date: 17 March 2010
