Picker Institute Europe
 Making patients' views count
Assistant Survey Researcher
 (Temporary 6 month post until November 2013)
 Picker Institute Europe, Oxford
 Picker Institute Europe is a healthcare charity specialising in obtaining feedback from patients and using this to improve the quality of health services. We organise patient surveys for hospitals, primary and community care, carry out research into patients' needs and preferences, run conferences, events and training courses, and manage the national advice centre for the NHS patient survey programme.
 This is an exciting opportunity to join a small, friendly team of researchers working closely with NHS organisations and others committed to patient-centred healthcare.
 We are currently recruiting for a temporary research assistant to work on our NHS patient and staff surveys, as well as providing general administrative support across the survey teams. The successful applicant will collate and check survey data, respond to telephone enquiries and help with the administration of the survey, as well as providing on-going support for a number of other projects. This is a varied and interesting post in a friendly office in Oxford. Microsoft Office skills are required, including proficiency in Excel and Word. A methodical approach and attention to detail are essential.
 Please send CV and covering letter to Sharna Picken, Picker Institute Europe, Buxton Court, 3 West Way, Oxford, OX2 0JB, or email to sharna.picken@pickereurope.ac.uk
 Closing date for applications is Friday 19th April 2013.
 For further information, contact Sharna Picken on 01865 208100.
