Come to our Presentation
Friday 20th October 2000, 6.30pm
at Frevd Cafe, Walton Street

Always behind the scenes, rarely centre-stage - that's consultants. But wait till you see our performance. Monitor Company is a passionate, creative, entrepreneurial network comprising some 1,000 professionals in 25 countries.

Working hand in hand with our dynamically growing client base - including top-rated Fortune 500 companies, government bodies and institutions - we leave no stone unturned in analysing and synchronising key strategic choices for their future. We are at the forefront of change, devising a broad array of strategies that impact every sphere of a business's operations. It's an interactive approach that inspires trust, letting us come as consultants and stay on as friends. If you share our commitment to excellence, and you know better than to rely on conventional wisdom, why not co-author this success story? Become part of a global experience that has been synonymous with personal growth opportunities, team spirit, professional development and networking since 1983.

Who we are looking for
You are creative, clever and possess superior analytical skills. You enjoy working in an international environment, love new challenges and are ready to chart your own course.
Moreover, you
• Are a young professional entering the work force
• Study economics, engineering, sociology, physics, philosophy or ...?
• Have an international education
• Participate in extra-curricular activities
• Have a sense of humour at work

Fit the bill? Let's talk!
