Sales Development Executive Portuguese Speaker
 We are a dynamic organization of worldwide language schools, looking for a bright, ambitious graduate to work as a Sales Development Executive.
 The role would entail working on increasing business from the South American markets by recruiting staff to establish and run booking offices in various countries. The ideal candidate would be a Portuguese speaker, preferably with knowledge of Spanish, who would be willing to travel frequently. He/she must be sales driven, results oriented and enjoy working independently.
 This post would run from January onwards. Please apply with a CV and cover letter to olivier.demongeot@oise.com by 30th November.

German-Speaking Graduate
 We are a dynamic organization of worldwide language schools, looking for a bright, outgoing graduate to build a network of referees in Germany.
 A successful candidate would be a German-speaker with good interpersonal skills and a confident telephone manner. He/she would need to take the initiative and enjoy working independently on a variety of tasks. The role would chiefly involve creating and maintaining a network of German referees, who would advise students on our adult and junior courses.
 This would begin as a 3 month contract but could evolve into full time. Please apply with a CV and cover letter to olivier.demongeot@oise.com by 30th November.
