Tall Tales & Odd Dons
... "Alas, there are no eccentrics left now" ...
... Let Dons Delight ...
A Don, when told that a colleague had committed suicide, replied "Pray don't tell me who, let me guess" ...
One Don to another: "I was broadcasting last night" "Oh, if I'd known I'd have told the servants to listen" ...
A Don replied to a boring acquaintance who asked if he might have a chat with him, "Yes, indeed, do sit on my deaf side" ...
One Don to another: "When I was up, there were many brilliant men here" "Really, and did you know any of them?"

Tall Tales and Odd Dons: We take no responsibility for the truth or otherwise of these tales! The answer to what to do with one's cherry stones at All Souls' has never been divulged. To gain entry as a Fellow is considered the height of academic achievement, and before one reaches the alleged cherry-stone stage, a terrifying academic ordeal has to be negotiated. The final paper is perhaps the most demanding: a single essay, to be written in three hours, with a one-word title. In 1985 the word was "Discretion". A few years before that it was "Green". Fellowships last for seven years during which time the fellows are provided with free rooms and dinners, and the freedom to conduct their research. There is also a small stipend (£4,655 in 1986). The formal requirement is to penmate (spend the night in Oxford) for 84 days in the first year.

OXFORD HISTORY
When a Professor fell dead outside Wadham College a friend said "Very sad... but why choose to die outside Wadham?" ...
The absent-minded Dr Spooner, when going by train, is reputed to have kissed the porter and tipped a lady friend ...
Cherry tart is said to be served at dinner to see what Fellowship candidates do with the stones on a rimless bowl ...
"The 3 ages of Dons: youth, middle age, and you're looking very well"
Corpus Christi
Dr Arnold let off steam by hurling bottles at the sundial in the main quadrangle
The Rev. Tatham (Lincoln) preached long sermons, one lasted 3 hours. At the end the only member of the congregation left was found to be dead ...
"Please, Sir, may I have leave to go to my uncle's funeral?" ...
The Rev. Whitefield was a religious fanatic. He once spent the night praying in the garden in a storm
"You may go, but I wish it had been a nearer relation"

Dailyinfo rollover jackpot!
We set aside £10 each week to reward ideas for making Dailyinfo more profitable/effective. If we incorporate your idea (or if we don't, but think it's worth a consolation prize) we'll send you the amount accumulated in the kitty.
The rollover opened on 24.09.03 at £10.
It now (15/10/03) stands at £40!
Please note that this scheme is intended for reasonably substantial structural suggestions. Minor suggestions (e.g. links to other sites, slight amendments) are not likely to be considered for this prize, but are very gratefully received and may incur other rewards.
