DAILY INFO CARDBOARD ROLLS (usage suggestions) COMPETITION WINNER
 Thanks to everyone who contributed their inventive ideas to this online competition (from underwear stores to bricks for a new town around Oxford). Final congratulations go to Clare Backhouse, who won due to the number and variety of her answers (see below), and receives a box of chocolates and as many 1 metre cardboard rolls as she likes.
 • Enamel-painted sections to make spaghetti holders, cutlery holders, or, indeed, with lids (easy to make) to make storage for lentils, couscous, rice...
 • glue about 195 together to make a very sturdy coffee table
 • cut up rolls into sections and sew/staple to make giant girder-racing tracks
 • line with thin plastic bag and grow carrots in tins
 • cut length-wise, line with plastic and grow tiny borders of grass-seed along the window-sill for a rural look...
 • cut in half, paint, use for lamp bases
