超意返还功 CFQ for Beginners
 Easy movements for health and peace
 CFQ is a system which reduces stress and promotes emotional wellbeing. CFQ itself consists of a series of simple, relaxed movements.
 Think that it's only much, much easier.
 It is particularly suitable for people who spend a lot of time commuting and find it hard to switch afterwards.
 There are two weekly CFQ classes in Oxford:
Monday Evening, 20.00 - 3.30pm
Wednesday Evening, 19.30 - 21.30pm
 Also Oxford workshops with Master Paul. 9.9 to 15/16 March. Full details on www.cfq.org.uk

THEATRE REVIEWS
's Pity She's A Whore
 Moser Theatre, Wadham College, to Sat 23rd February
 Despite his modern-sounding name, the playwright John Ford wrote Pity She's A Whore less than a century after Shakespeare wrote Titus Andronicus, and these plays share a common theme of star-crossed young lovers doomed to end in tragedy. But where in Shakespeare's play the hero's wife is murdered, here it is the murderer and the wife who are murdered, and the love is for a play that's more than an abate a foot below this one.

Julia Bell
 The Turn of The Screw
 Herford College Chapel: Fri 22nd Feb: 8pm
 A friend and I went to see The Oxford Opera Company's production of The Turn of the Screw at the North Wall Arts Centre in South Oxford. I was particularly impressed by the company's ability to perform the work at Herford College. I recommended it to all lovers of British, of the uncanny, and of unusually good opera. The production was of the highest quality and the music was superb. The company is to be commended for its professional production. It is a pity that it is in someone's private house.
