JOBS OFFERED

OXFORD WOMEN'S TRAINING SCHEME
Jive Partners is an EQUAL-FAIR Development Partnership
creating change for women and girls in the engineering, construction and technology sectors. The partnership is building upon approaches developed since 2002 that tackle organisation culture and attitudes towards women and the lack of peer-group support for women in these sectors.
Oxford Women's Training Scheme (OWTS) is the lead body for the Jive South East Hub. We are seeking to recruit:
Jive Partners South East Regional Project Worker:
Mentoring Co-ordinator to October 2005
£23,358 to £24,726, 37 hours per week
A creative, confident, well-organised individual is required to coordinate events for learning providers, careers advisers or employers. Effective communication skills, negotiating skills and strong IT skills are essential to the position. Experience of working directly with employers and learning providers on equality and diversity is desirable.
Commitment to equality and diversity is essential for all posts.
Applications from Black and minority ethnic candidates are welcome. OWTS offers staff development, good holiday and employment terms and final salary pension scheme.
Closing date: 10 February 2005. Interviews: 14 February 2005.
For an application pack contact: Ann Clark at OWTS on 01865
