WEBLINK OF THE DAY:

EDEN

From Daily Information's Gardens page, you can link to the Eden Project - the vast bubbly greenhouse set in a Cornish china clay quarry which has made a massive boost to the local Cornish economy through promoting environmental sustainability.

It was recently confirmed that scenes in the new Bond film will be filmed in Eden's Biomes, the self-contained bubbles which host the mini replicas of rainforests and the Mediterranean, South African, Calfornian and Cornish environments.
