COMING

Kafka's Dick

by Alan Bennett

Sydney and Linda have a tortoise in their garden. A tortoise with a death wish. Little do they realise that it is a leading figure in European literature. Little does Franz Kafka realize it either. And once he does, all hell breaks loose. Even his old man gets in on the act.

Alan Bennett's comic exploration of the myth of the artist takes our obsession with the famous to hilarious new heights.

Old Fire Station Theatre
Tues 1 - Sat 5 October at 7.30pm

OPENING THE MICROCOSMIC ORBIT

The Microcosmic Orbit is the collective name for your two most important energy channels, which run up the spine & down the front of the body.

The joining and activation of these channels produces important health benefits, including increased resistance to stress and illness and a heightened level of vitality.

This is the energy which is balanced by acupuncture, except here you do it yourself, without needles.

Movements to open the orbit will be taught on Sunday Oct 6th, 1-5pm, St Phillip & St James School, Lockford Rd, £15, £10 concs. Beginners very welcome.
