Administrative Assistant
 required for
The Cochrane Collaboration
 The Cochrane Collaboration is an independent, not-for-profit, research organisation. We believe that effective health care is created through equal partnerships between provider, practitioner, researcher and patient. We're looking to appoint a full-time Administrative Assistant to work with our Team P.A. to ensure the smooth running of our office.
Skills and experience: These are more important than formal qualifications, and should include effective verbal and written communication skills; a helpful and friendly telephone manner; the ability to take minutes of meetings; fast and accurate keyboard skills; ICT skills; proficiency in Outlook, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, use of the Internet; the ability to prioritise work and meet deadlines, to organise meetings and teleconferences, and to make travel and accommodation bookings for Secretariat staff. This person should be a self-starter, who takes pride in their work, picks up new skills quickly, and is confident working on their own as well as contributing as a member of the team. You would be expected to work on our high standards.
Location: Summertown, Oxford, UK.
Hours: Full-time (37.5 hours/week) for one year.
Salary: £21,176 p.a. (equivalent to NHS Band 5, Point).
 For more information and a job description please e-mail Rachel Sayers (rsayers@cochrane.org) with 'Administrative Assistant' in the subject line.
 Please note that applications without a detailed covering letter will not be considered.
Electronic applications only, please, by noon on Friday 11 November 2011. Interviews on Monday 21 November 2011.

Business Manager
 based in Oxford, UK
Salary £20,000
 Oxford HR is a small, but fast-growing, consultancy working with the international development, environment, fair-trade, social enterprise and not-for-profit sectors. For more information, see:
www.oxfordhr.co.uk
 Our primary area of expertise is executive search - assisting relevant organisations to fill senior and / or specialist roles at the top of their organisations. In our work, our information is crucial and it is essential that we are able to store and access our information quickly and accurately.
 The Business Manager co-ordinates the Oxford HR office and day-to-day operations, providing support to the Directors and Consultants, managing the day-to-day functions of the office, allocating tasks to the other members of the research and admin team and ensure that systems and processes run smoothly.
 s/he will research specific assignments efficiently and accurately. s/he must be reliable, accurate, well-organised and methodical, with a good eye for detail - and a 'finisher', with a pleasant, friendly, helpful manner - in person and on the telephone. She will need internet-based research skills and a confident telephone manner to carry out telephone research, considerable office admin experience and an interest in international development.
 The ability to work under pressure and manage a fluctuating workload and with a multi-cultural workforce and client base are essential. If you would like to know more, please contact Tamsin Jewell - email tjewell@oxfordhr.co.uk.
