OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Primary Events Assistant

About Us
Oxford University Press is a department of the University of Oxford, which furthers the University's objective of excellence in research, scholarship, and education by publishing worldwide.

The Education Division provides books and resources across Primary, Secondary, Trade and Children's markets, both for the UK and for customers around the world. We are passionately committed to our mission to educate and inspire through book board and screen.

We are expanding our successful Oxford Primary events programme to promote our key brands to primary teachers, consultants, and advisers through well-known and highly regarded speakers.

About the Role
In this role you would be responsible for:
- Processing and confirming bookings, monitoring numbers, and keeping stakeholders informed
- Ensuring our sales representatives have all necessary equipment on the day
- Tagging attendees on our Spirit database
- Raising, checking and sending out invoices
- Assisting with the events newsletter
- Providing administrative support to the Sales Support team as required

About You
We are looking for an experienced, computer literate administrator with excellent written and verbal communication skills. You will need to remain calm under pressure, be able to prioritise a challenging workload, and meet deadlines.

An interest in/experience of event organisation and the primary educational market would be an advantage.

Closing date: 11 August 2010

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Assistant to ELT Marketing Director and Teacher Training Team

About Us
Oxford University Press is a department of the University of Oxford, which furthers the University's objective of excellence in research, scholarship, and education by publishing worldwide.

The ELT Division is a global leader in the provision of multimedia English language teaching and learning materials. Operating in over 100 countries, it reaches millions of teachers and students each year to support the development of English language proficiency.

The Marketing Team works very closely with overseas offices, the sales teams and the publishing teams to ensure that we satisfy the needs of internal and external customers.

About the Role
This role is responsible for co-ordinating our busy author tour and teacher-training programme. It includes:
- checking availability of speakers and making travel arrangements
- liaising with overseas offices in preparing itineraries
- arranging feedback and evaluation.
- conference planning and organisation for both internal sales conferences and OUP's presence at international teacher training conferences

This post will also provide administrative support to the Marketing Director. This includes:
- diary management organising meetings with local and overseas management teams
- travel arrangements
- support with preparing correspondence, meeting minutes, documents and presentations

This role is an 11 month fixed term contract.

About You
The ideal candidate will demonstrate the following:
- excellent organizational skills
- the ability to prioritise a heavy workload
- excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to develop strong relationships with authors and speaker
- initiative in providing speakers and overseas offices with extra support for their events
- excellent knowledge of the Microsoft Office packages.

The salary offered will be in the region of £24,000 depending on the skills and experience. OUP offers a full range of supporting benefits.

ROOMS WANTED

SECOND-YEAR DPHIL (mature) student seeks other, like-minded DPhils who would be willing to team up and find a really clean, tidy and quiet house/flat. I'd be looking for something fairly central. My needs are: a spacious double with ample room to accommodate lots of my stuff (including a Silent Piano). I am in London throughout the summer, but am looking to move within the next month. I would be more than happy to come up and help with the search for places. Please feel free to email me or call/text on 07952 588473. I'd be willing to pay anything from £350-400 pcm (perhaps 420 at a push). Des. ye2n@users.dailyinfo.co.uk
